Domaine Méa LA SAIGNÉE DE BOUZY

Domaine Mea is located in the tiny Grand Cru of Louvois. The village is named after the wolves ('loup' in French) that used to emerge from the forests above and wander down through the vineyards and out to hunt. The vineyards are all to the south of the town on hills that face back towards the river. Historically vineyard holdings have been in Louvois, Bouzy and the premier cru of Tauxières-Mutry. They have also inherited vineyards in Ludes, Chigny-les-Roses and Montbré that are still owned by the house.
